Online campuswide survey: Rockefeller logo

Below are five options for a Rockefeller University logo. (Note that option E is the current RU logo and was created as a transitional logo after the Centennial; if used, the reference to “celebrating 100 years” would be removed.) Please check your email for more information and a link to an online survey. Your input will help determine the direction the university takes to update its identity.

If you do not have access to a computer, you may take the survey at the Office of Communications and Public Affairs, 2nd Floor, Nurses Residence.
