TRI-I NOON RECITALS

Caspary Auditorium • The Rockefeller University

25th Season

Supported by The Victor Elmaleh Fund for Pianists

Vassily Primakov

pianist

Natalia Lavrova

guest pianist

"We will be hearing much more of Vassily Primakov in the years ahead. He is a worthy successor to Richard Goode, Ursula Oppens and Emanuel Ax."
The Washington Post

"A fiery performance...with bold, expressive phrasing and dramatic commitment that brought the audience to its feet."
New York Times

Ms. Lavrova's solo and orchestral performances: throughout her native Russia as well as in Canada, France, Hungary, Italy, United Kingdom and the United States, including New York's Alice Tully Hall and Avery Fisher Hall at Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall, and Steinway Hall.

Since Gilels, how many pianists have the right touch? In Chopin, no one currently playing and recording sounds as good as this! This is a great Chopin pianist."
American Record Guide, Primakov Chopin CD

Schubert: Impromptus & Dances — WQXR "Featured Album of the Week"
Schumann — Fanfare, "Best CDs of 2010"
